A Weekly Publication of the Rotary Club of Richmond, California

Program for Friday December 3, 2004

Cliff Dochterman
100 Years in Thirty Minutes

Cliff's professional life includes 40 years in higher education administration - at University of California in Berkeley and at the University of Pacific in Stockton.

Most of us know him for his volunteer work for Rotary over the past 43 years. He has served in almost every Rotary assignment in the world. From Berkeley Club president, to District Governor, to Rotary International Director, R.I. Vice President, President of Rotary International and chairman of virtually every Rotary committee. Cliff has probably talked to more Rotary Clubs than anyone in the world. He is the author of the booklet, "The A B C's of Rotary", which has been translated into more languages and has had more copies sold than any other Rotary publication.

In 1992-93 he became the world President of Rotary International. He selected the theme, "Real Happiness Is Helping Others. Cliff has been honored by the heads of state of dozens of countries for spreading good will and world understanding. He also served 6 years as a Trustee of The Rotary Foundation, and served as Chairman of the Foundation. He was one of the pioneers of the PolioPlus program and serves as a member of, o advisor to the International PolioPlus Committee. Cliff is also chairman of Rotary's Centennial Operations Committee, preparing for Rotary's 100th anniversary In 2005.
